

Our very democracy is at stake!

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to mandate their stations to air an anti-Kerry film days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge. Choosing to show a film that is politically motivated is reprehensible especially since they are obligated by law to serve the public interest.

What's more important is to see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter. Issues that are fair and balanced.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you.
